

Born Ready

(words & music by Rob Crosby, Stephanie Bentley & Elizabeth Hengber)

I came in to this world 3 weeks early daddy said I didn't even cry
It's like I wanted to get the party started with the fire burning in my eyes
With my first breath my first heartbeat I was dreaming big dreams from a booster seat
Mama always told me that I was born ready
Born ready

Ever since then I've been sitting on go cause I never wanted second place
Tell me I can't, I'll show you I can just to see the look on your face
Show me the spotlight I'm gonna want it, show me a stage and I'm getting on it
Mama always told me that I was born ready

Ready to roll, ready to rock
Look out here I go, ready or not
The world's gonna know I was born ready

So if you're waiting on me, well you're backing up
There's no stopping my heart once my mind is made up
My mama told me I was born ready

I was born ready
I was born ready
I was born ready

I came in to this world 3 weeks early daddy said I didn't even cry

Feelin' Bout You

(words & music by Rob Crosby, Eric Paslay & Rose Falcon)

First time I saw you, I knew I had to, have you, ooh ohh
The closer you got, the further my heart was falling, all in
I can't stop and no I can't turn back, I'm a runaway train, you're a one way track

Chorus:

No way to hide it, no I can't fight it, ooh ooh I got a feelin' bout you Temperature rising, you got me flying, ooohhh I got a feeling
Oooh I got a feeling bout you

Got a suspicion, sweet intuition I'm hoping, and wishing Loves gonna find us, we're gonna wind up midnight kissing
All wrapped up under a van Gogh sky with a holy fire burning in our eyes

REPEAT CHORUS

You and me we could be dancing on the edge of forever
Something deep down in me saying we ought to be together

I can't stop and no I can't turn back, I'm a runaway train, you're a one way track

No way to hide it, no I can't fight it, ooh ooh
Temperature rising, you got me flying, ooohhh

Feels Like Letting Go

(words & music by Kayleigh Leith, Tim Grogan, Ben Olsen)

This big small town got it's hands all over me
I don't wake up in a city with new lights
Ain't nobody telling me, where and who I wanna be Open up my eyes and see that something just ain't right.

Wasting time in a place that I know I will never be Shifting gears until I find everything that I want in this life

Chorus:

Feels like letting go, but I'm holding on Can't seem to fight it off, cause I'm not that strong
But maybe, well maybe one day, when I'm down right ready
I'll feel like letting go, I'll feel like letting go, letting go

Seen a lot of open doors wherever I've been I just want to walk through, but no one ever lets me in Always telling me where to go, it's like I have no real home
Never felt so alone, still I won't be held down.

Wasting time in a place that I know I will never be
Shifting gears until I find everything that I want in this life

I Go There

(words & music by Rob Crosby & Rose Falcon)

I can be in my car going out with a friend
I can almost feel like my old self again at a cafe on a first date with somebody new

At a party with a half empty glass of champagne on a morning when the weatherman's calling for rain pouring coffee, when it hits me right out of the blue

I think about us lying down on a midnight beach
With the stars all around listening to you breathe
Whispering your name feeling my heart rise
On a wave of love stronger than the tide
I can be any time night or day, your memory steals me away
And outta nowhere I go there.

As close as a thought as near as a dream
Yesterday's never as far as it seems Right behind me, you can find me, wherever I am

I think about us all alone even in a crowd
Secret all our own laughing way too loud
Dancing slow while the man on the corner plays
Throwing dollar bills in his guitar case
It can be anytime night or day, your memory steals me away and out of no where....

I go there down on a midnight beach
With the stars all around listening to you breathe
Whispering your name feeling my heart rise
On a wave of love stronger than the tide
It can be any time night or day, your memory steals me away
And out of nowhere, out of thin air I go there.

I can be in my car going out with a friend....

This Woman

(words & music by Kayleigh Leith & Rob Crosby)

I heard the midnight promise
That breaks at the break of dawn
I had that kind of love, that's here then it's gone

I tasted kisses like honey
That ended bitter and cold
Been locked in an ivory tower in chains of gold

Chorus:

This woman wants a man that'll hold her
And never hold her back
This woman needs a touch of a lover
With a heart on a fire and a tender hand
Gentle as an April shower
Strong as a hurricane,
That's the man it's gonna take to tame, this woman

Don't talk about forever
Just meet me half the way
Don't start a conversation
Less you got something to say

I ain't no bright eyed beauty
Fell off the turn up truck
If you're just looking for a quick fix, you're outta luck

My Heart Goes Back

(written by Kayleigh Leith & Rob Crosby)

Sitting at a station, waiting for a train
Or down some long blue highway, driving through the rain
From somewhere far behind me, I feel you touch my hand
You always seem to find me, no matter where I am

Chorus:

My heart goes back to a summer day
When the world was ours and it turned our way
To a flowered field and an endless sky
And a bed of green where we would lie
And the promise of a brand new love
Still echoes from the past, and my heart goes back

For all the roads I've taken
And the places I have been
It only takes a moment
To take me there again

REPEAT CHORUS

And the promise of a brand new love
Still echoes from the past
And my heart goes back

Too Much Of A Good Thing

(words & music by Kayleigh Leith & Rob Crosby)

Your kiss so sweet
Your touch so warm
You make me feel so good when you wrap me up in your arms

I love the smell of your skin
When we're heart to heart
I love the sound of your voice when your whispering in the dark

Chorus:

They say too much of a good thing is dangerous stuff
But too much of this good thing never gonna be enough

You go to my head
Like a fine red wine
Sending waves of desire running up and down my spine

You're in my blood
I'm under your spell
I'm getting drunk on you and I'm never gonna get my feel

REPEAT CHORUS

You're the craving, I can't satisfy
I can't quit you even if I try

I could feel your love till the end of time
Till the stars go out, and the moon and the sun don't shine

I could feel your love, till the sea runs dry
Till the mountains fall and the souls of the faithful rise

Be Here All Night

(words & music by Matthew Crosby)

There's no good telling you that it's any other way than the way it is You know the games that people play
I'm not gonna tell you no, and I think you know
Cause I could never push you away

Shame on you if don't know, after all this time

Chorus:

You don't have to knock on the door
Cause you already know, come on inside baby
You don't have to call on the phone to make sure I am at home cause I'll be here all night baby

These city lights are burning on this late February Tuesday night, inside my head
And I've got friends to call that I haven't called in weeks and years and yeah
Don't mind that I stay with you instead

Shame on you if don't know, after all this time
How I feel
How I feel

Bad Things

(words & music by Kayleigh Leith)

Do you wanna hide me, do you wanna throw away, me
Do you think bad of me and do you understand, do you understand
Don't you think bad things of me, cuz you're standing alone
I'll go away but I know that you want me, you want me, you want me

And I think you are something else
I think the things that you've said
Bad things, bad things and I'm right, so right, so right

Chorus:

And but I'm drowning inside
I'm left alone not left behind
Is it me or is it stories in my mind, my wandering mind

Is this my chance or do I step back behind
Did I disappoint you, display of faith, display of faith
Don't you think bad things of me, cause you're standing alone
I'll go away but I know that you want me, you want me, you want me

And I think you are something else
I think the things that you've said
Bad thing, bad things and I'm right, so right, so right

Repeat Chorus

Sitting waiting, contemplating, can't believe it that you never really cared Loving aching, my heart is breaking, can't believe it that you never really cared
You never really cared about me, oh me, you never really cared about me

Repeat Chorus

Bet You

(words & music by Kayleigh Leith & J. Fred Knobloch)

Don't this seem so peculiar
A little bit familiar too
Been down this road before
Been down this road a time or two

Boots stompin across the floor
A short goodbye and a slammin door

Chorus:

Bet you remember me now
Bet you Bet you remember me now
Bet you remember me now
Bet you Bet you remember me now

I know who you're with
And I know right where you work
I know where you live
I know right where it hurts
One thing that'll make it worse
Is what I'm hiding in my little black purse

REPEAT CHORUS

Lipstick, scarlet red high heels and my little black dress no more second chances make sure you don't forget every piece, every part, broke down my broken heart

REPEAT CHORUS

Hey baby, you get the message, you're reading me loud and clear
I'm done with second best I'm done with all these games you hear Knock knockin at my door, but I ain't here no more
